

If God Were Speaking

If God were speaking in our day
What words would He use
What could He say
Would His voice be heard by mighty men
And rulers of the earth
If God were speaking in our day

If God were appearing in our day
Whose eyes would behold Him face to face
Would the learned ones with prideful hearts
Stand worthy in His gaze
If God were appearing in our day

But to a world in desperate need
Came the Father and the Son
Not to a jaded, doubting soul
But a simple boy innocent and young
Through whom truth could come

If God sought to gather in His fold
To end all the darkness long foretold
Would he use the vain and selfish hands
That never clasp in prayer
If God sought to gather in His fold

So to this world in desperate need
Came the Father and the Son
Restoring what had long been lost
Through a simple boy innocent and young
The truth once more had come

If God were to speak with you today
What words would He use
What could He say
Would you feel His power
And hear His voice
Whispering to your heart
If God were to speak with you today

Doctrinal Topics

Restoration of the Gospel

Joseph Smith

Personal revelation

Continuing revelation

Modern-day prophets