

This I Believe

Cold and empty
A random happenstance
A child is born
An old man dies
In a universe of chance

Myth and fancy
For those who need the crutch
And thus the world perceives itself
And those whom God has touched

Yet I believe
I have been shown
God's word decreed
His truth restored and made known

Chorus

The gate is straight and clear
When His words I choose to hear
The heavens are not cloaked in silence
No such blindness now impedes my way
A Father Divine cares for me
He still speaks today

Ancient voices
Crying from the dust
Confirming what I'd known before
And what I've come to trust.

Old World
New Land
The message is the same
Lift the eyes
And bend the knee
Glory in His name

This I believe
This I've been shown
God's word decreed
His truth restored and made known.

CHORUS

This I believe
This I've been shown
God's word decreed
His truth restored and made known.

Chorus

He still speaks today
Yes He still speaks today

Doctrinal Topics

Book of Mormon
Restoration of The Gospel
Belief
Doubt
Personal Revelation
Continuing Revelation
Modern-day prophets Secularism

only in His name
(Through His holy name.)

(trust, much, entrust, clutch, touch)

in my mind it's- blind. blindness, inclined it's, find it's in such blindness (we have not been left)

In my mind it seems so blind to say that God has left us alone in the world today

no such blindness is our lot today.

When His words I choose to hear
The gate is straight and clear
Each step I need not walk alone lead me home