

Crossroads

Step by step my days unfold
Moments slipping past
Changing all with each season's turn

Despite my cares
The fleeting hours
Continue on their way
Do I stand and watch while the drama plays on?

I wait in the wings
With questions unanswered
Though the cast sings eternity's song

Chorus

These things are true
Or they are not
The Heavens are open
Or they are not
Make the path clear to me
Dear Father I plea
Let me see past this crossroad today
Lead me thou through these crossroads I pray short inst.

Here you are
Before me now
With teachings in your hand
Your voice is strong, your faith seems secure

You speak of God
And priesthood power
Of prophets old and new
Of gaining this belief that is sure.

Though a doubter would mock
In my heart I would swear
That I've heard your words somewhere before

Repeat Chorus

Each man has a time when he stares in the dark
And asks what he truly believes
He answers at times without compass or chart

Not knowing the way is only found on bended knee.
If he'll lift his eyes to see.

Repeat Chorus
