

The Temptation

Wilderness lonely
A burden to bear
Led by the Spirit
In fasting and prayer
Humble and hungered
A trial from the Tempter came to Him

Famished of body
Though royal of will
A heart undeterred with a mission to fulfill
Devil and demon
With lies and with reason could sway Him not

See the Lightning from Heaven falling down
O thou Son of the Morning
O thou Lucifer

If thou be the Son of God
Make bread of stones
Cast thyself down
Let thy power be known
All of my glory I'll give unto thee
If thou'll worship me

Savior, Son of Man
In such enmity forged us a victory
Showed us the way

See the Lightning from Heaven falling down
Oh thou Son of the Morning
Void of glory now

Jesus unwav'ring
His providence pure
Trusting His Father in confidence sure
No mortal doubting
No pause in belief
Marred the Holy Lamb

Savior, Son of Man
For Thy grace I plead
Forgive thou mine unbelief
Purge me of evil

With faith in thee

Free now my sin bound soul
My Lord, My King

Doctrinal Topics

The temptation of Jesus